

33rd ANNUAL RSA SCIENTIFIC MEETING

GENERAL INFORMATION

CONFERENCE SITE: The 2010 RSA Scientific Meeting will be held at the Grand Hyatt San Antonio, which is situated on the San Antonio Riverwalk. The Riverwalk offers a variety of dining, entertainment and shopping venues. San Antonio's old world Spanish flair and blend of cultures make it one of America's most picturesque cities. Hotel reservations should be made through RSA using the forms on our website – www.RSoA.org

GETTING THERE: There are over 100 flights daily to San Antonio. The airport is about eight miles from downtown San Antonio or a 15-minute taxi ride. Ground transportation includes SATRANS airport shuttle.

Find San Antonio International Airport flight information, transit services provided, flight time and mileage on their website (<http://www.sanantonio.gov/aviation/>), or call (210)207-3411 for more information.

MEAL FUNCTIONS: Included in the registration fee are the opening reception, daily continental breakfasts, coffee breaks and poster session refreshments and the closing ceremony (dinner, presentations, dancing). Social Guests may partake in any or all of these functions by purchasing tickets in advance (see the Registration Form for Guest Meal prices).

WEATHER and DRESS: With 300 days of sunshine a year, San Antonio is an ideal destination year round and the most visited city in Texas. The average temperatures in June are a high of 91° and a low of 72°, although the daytime temperatures could be in the 100's. Dress style is casual. A sweater or jacket is recommended wear for evenings and air-conditioned meeting rooms.
